

Garmin Fenix 5s Sapphire

For serious athletes and adventurers who want to do more, not wear more – fēnix 5S Sapphire is the perfect fit. It's Garmin's premium multisport watch that offers full-size performance in a lighter, sleeker, more compact design - with a 42mm watch face. So you can beat yesterday with advanced features such as wrist-based heart rate, built-in activity profiles, navigation functions, and performance metrics that measure the effectiveness of your workout. It's one smart sportwatch you can comfortably wear anywhere – office or outback – to keep pace with your active lifestyle. Key Features

Striking Design, Strong Performance: The Garmin fēnix 5s Sapphire watch colour combinations and premium features, sets to give you the look, performance and lightweight comfort to match both your aesthetic and athletic interests.

Dual Navigation Networks: Every fēnix 5 series watch features advanced GPS and GLONASS satellite reception to track in more challenging environments than GPS alone. You can count on long battery life in each mode of operation (varies by model, depending on settings).

Outstanding Readability on the Run: A bright, high-resolution, full-color Garmin Chroma Display with LED backlighting assures great readability in all ambient conditions. Transflective technology that reflects and transmits light at the same time enables the watch face to become even more readable under intense sunlight.

Wrist-Based Heart Rate: On your wrist, Elevate wrist heart rate technology lets you monitor your heart rate without wearing a chest strap. In addition to counting steps and monitoring sleep, the watch uses heart rate to provide calories burned information and quantify the intensity of your fitness activities.

Advanced Performance Metrics: Every fēnix 5S Sapphire watch is packed with sophisticated training features to help monitor your form and performance. Enhanced readouts for Training Status and Training Effect show aerobic and anaerobic benefits of your workout – so you can see how your workouts are paying off and even compare results with your peers
