Get motivated with the Samsung Gear Sport Smartwatch to move more, eat better, and live a healthy life. The Gear Sport tracks your fitness and diet, keeping you on the right path to reach your goals. It's as stylish as it is functional. No matter what the occasion, you can style the watch to suit, with the design allowing you to interchange the straps with virtually any 22mm watch strap. You also have the freedom to change the watch face from fitness to business for a night out on the town, so you can style the Gear Sport to suit. Key Features Get Healthy: Set health and diet goals on your phone and start tracking your progress right from your wrist. Gear Sport makes it easy to keep you calories in balance and track calorie intake. It also offers tips and insights that you can use to stay on track. Workout your way: Get the most out of your exercise with the training guide app on your phone. Select from a number of different workouts, with more to come, and the Gear Sport will guide you through the motions as it measures your heart rate. Go ahead, get wet: If swimming is your sport of choice or you get caught running in the rain, keep going. The Gear Sport has a water-resistant rating of 5ATM or 50 meters, so even in the deep end, your activity is recorded. Afterwards, sync with Speedo On, Speedo's new Swim Tracking app, to dig into the details. Get timely suggestions: When travelling or sitting for long periods of time the intuitive Gear Sport will notice you have been inactive and suggest stretches for you to do right from your seat. Control with a touch: Changing settings or replying to notifications is as simple as a swipe on the screen or a turn of the bezel. Swipe up or down from any screen to access the Customised Moment Bar and adjust the volume, check the battery level, and more. If a text comes in, reply to it with a turn of the bezel.
